HUGH E. SWANKE – Entertainer, Disc Jockey, Coordinator

Hugh has been an Entertainer and Disc Jockey in Southern California since 1987, having performed for over 1,000 weddings, parties and events. He has done voice-overs for radio and video productions, been the Master of Ceremony for fashion shows, athletic shows, car shows, and bridal shows. Hugh is the founder and owner of A New Song Mobile Entertainment, and has one other entertainer working with him. The company focus is on weddings and receptions, as well as corporate parties and sound services.

His entire family has been or still is in entertainment, most of them in music. Hugh started playing bongos in a folk band before the first grade, has been in many theater productions, and has performed magic, song and comedy. He was lead singer for The Cantors in the mid 1980's, has directed and written stage plays, and hosted karaoke shows in South Riverside County. He became a Disc Jockey with the help of a long-time friend who was a trainer for a large entertainment company in Southern California.

Currently, Hugh is on the Leadership Counsel for Disc Jockey America, a professional organization dedicated to professionalism in the Disc Jockey industry, is a founding member of the Inland Empire American Disc Jockey Association, and a member of the American Disc Jockey Association. In the past Hugh has founded two wedding professional organizations, one in San Diego, and one in Temecula. His goals for the future include teaching and training other Disc Jockeys so that the standards of the industry will allow for greater professionalism.

Hugh BA in Philosophy from San Diego State University, and a teaching credential from California State University, Dominguez Hills. He lives in Wildomar CA with his wife and best friend Pam, four children, and far too many pets.
